Comments: KNOWLEDGE

+ Very DAP activity based on skills emerging and including another element of motor skills.
+ Evidence of understanding of importance of creating a relationship w/ learners first.

Comments: PERFORMANCE

+ I like that you intro the activity w/ intro of names.
- what does that spell? And what's your name? - Good. How could you help them to "spell" their name in another way?
- How could you help them w/ letter identification?
- Remember the goal of the overall activity and continually use your skills to teach to that.

Comments: DISPOSITION

+ you did a nice job trying to help the little guy feel more comfortable with you!
+ Encouraging, relaxed

Tip: Change your Requests from: Can you.... and Do you want to...

Overall this is a nice, hands-on activity for practicing names & spelling. Think about how you help them with the repetition & reciting of the process of writing their names as well as letter recognition.
